The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. It should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700 besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $150. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debt or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to Thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra charging is required.

Mumpsy is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than ever at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

THE CLOSING SCENES.

At 12 o'clock, on yesterday, the animals were turned loose and dispersed to their native jungles,—except the imported beasts, which were sent to the temporary covers which they have selected. All the white woman and children in this city were kept in doors, on yesterday, for fear of the consequences involved by canvassing such a motley horde. They can venture out, this morning, as, perhaps, the last of the scoundrels has either disappeared from our midst or is only skulking around in the purlieus, harmless and contemptible. The ominous Tourgee, the greasy Watts, the lantern-jawed Ashley, the well to-Welker, the ravishing May, the nondescript Rodman,—all are gone; the air is purer, the streets are cleaner, and the community is happier.

We learn that the closing proceedings of this infamous assemblage were even more discreditable, if that were possible, than any of those which preceded it and which have brought a disgrace upon the Hall of the House of Commons, that will render it an unfit place for decent men to assemble in for some time to come. Let all the disinfectants known to the Pharmacopeia be brought into requisition at once, to purify and to cleanse the infected room. Let the windows be kept open, so that the Spring breeze can have free and gentle play though the polluted arches.

In the barbarous regions of Africa, it is the custom, when human sacrifices are to be made and bloody rites celebrated, when bestial appetities are to be gorged and brutal lusts gratified,—for the savages to form a ring and dance, in demoniac glee, around the intended victims. This African assemblage closed its session in the genuine and appropriate African style. One, looking into their Hall, at midnight of Monday, and beholding the scene then and there transpiring, might well have imagined that he had been suddenly transported into the regions, of which Livingstone gives us an account. The victim was ready—the SACRED OLD CONSTITUTION of our fathers, under which we have lived and prospered,—and the savages gathered around it, negroes and scalawags, hand in hand, and danced and sang boisterous and ridiculous melodies. This is no metaphor. It is literal fact, and will bring a blush of shame to the cheek of every true North Carolinian, that the good and honest old State has come to such a pass,—that a set of apes and hybrids should be holding a brutal carnival in her halls of legislation and shocking decency, propriety and civilization by their impious and drunken orgies.

Pretty much the same scenes were enacted, just before the final adjournment, on yesterday. We learn that, after the business of the body was finished, speeches were called for from outsiders. A Gen. Littlefield, (a New York Broker or agent of Wall Street,) and, perhaps, others, responded in strains of glorification over the murdered remains of civil liberty in North Carolina, and the excessive taxation of an impoverished people. This Gen. Littlefield sang, we understand, from near the Speaker's Chair,—the seat of Macon and Stanly,—from a book of odes, the disgusting melody "Old John Brown's soul is marching on," or something of that sort, lining it out to the Convention and the negro auditors, who joined in the refrain with boisterous elation. Great Heaven! How came we to this? What words are adequate to express the horror and shame of good men at such infamous exhibitions? What words can paint the evils, the depravity, the ignominy that must result from the rule of such men?

It is needless to add that the Conservative members all left in disgust before these shameful scenes. It has given us deep pain, for the sake of old North Carolina, to record these things; but it is due to history, that we should mention them,—due to the people in all parts of the State, to tell them what sort of men they allowed, through their indifference, to come up here to make a Constitution for them,—due to all that we consider dear, to denounce these things that all lovers of the State may be aroused to effort to put down a "Constitution" conceived in such a spirit and framed by such traveston upon legislators and men! With this view, we shall give, to-morrow, if possible, a graphic resume of the details of these disgraceful occurrences.

We observe that the Courier Des Etats Unis and the Round Table take the same discouraging view of public affairs that we have so frequently expressed, and for the same reasons. The stolid, hardened indifference of the masses at the North, evinced under the threatening aspects to civil liberty, they consider a most alarming omen. The aims of Congress to subvert the powers of the Executive and Judiciary; and to change the entire character of the government, are too palpable to be doubted, and yet the government, which spent rivers of blood and millions of treasure to protect the Constitution and preserve the Union, submits without a murmur to the bloodless but certain destruction of both, under Radical rule.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES? That is one of the issues.

DISFRANCHISING NEGROES.

Conservatives must bear in mind that there is a class of so-called Republicans in the State, who are very violent in their opposition to Holden, and others on the Radical ticket, but who are as utterly committed to negro equality and consequent negro supremacy in the South, and who will vote for the new Constitution as promptly as the worst Radical in the State. We warn Conservatives to beware of such pretended friends.

We regard it to be the solemn duty of every white man in North Carolina, to vote down the new Constitution. This is the first, highest duty of every friend of the white race, as well as every true friend of the negro. Men are of small consideration compared with the great principles involved in the defeat of the Constitution. Bad and unprincipled as Holden is, and the Holden ticket, they are not as bad as the new Constitution. If the Constitution is defeated it not only defeats the Conservative ticket, (all of whom would rejoice) but it defeats Holden and all his satellites.

The real antagonism is between the old Constitution, formed by our fathers in purer days than the present, and the new Constitution, made by the scalawags of the so-called Convention. Holden is bad enough, but he can be gotten rid of, but when you consent to adopt the new Constitution, you fix it upon yourselves and your children for generations to come, perhaps.

The Register of this city still charges upon the Conservatives of the State, a desire to disfranchise the negroes. This is a disingenuous assault from that paper. The negroes of the South have never yet been enfranchised by competent authority. That is the great question now pending with the people. Congress attempts to force upon the South the enfranchisement of the negro, but it has left a chance to the white people of North Carolina to determine that matter for themselves. Will the white people, by their votes, submit to such injustice to themselves and their children? We do not believe it?

Does the Register admit the constitutional right of Congress to enfranchise the negro, without the consent of the white people of the State?

THE IMPEACHMENT.

It is impossible to read the proceedings of the impeachment trial of President Johnson, even at the outset, without shuddering at the exhibition of low partizan malice and the reckless disregard of justice or propriety, on the part of the impeachers and a portion of the judges. The conduct of Bingham, Butler and others, showed an indifference to the public judgment and a contempt for the decencies of civil investigation, never before exhibited in this country. The demand of the impeachers to proceed to trial, on return day, without giving the President any time for the preparation of his case, is the most sickening development of the want of moral character, except of the worst type, that American history affords. These men forget that they are on trial, as well as the President. Nor does the character of the Radical portion of the Senate show much better, when, after the President and his counsel modestly and properly ask for forty days in which to get ready for the trial, they retire into a secret place for discussion, and cut to him ten days or one fourth of the time asked. The whole proceeding shows that a majority of the Senators, as Judges in the case, have prejudged the President and sworn in advance to convict, with or without evidence. The developments of moral leprosy, as affecting our public men, are so palpable—the prevailing corruptions in Congress, the lobbies, &c., are so enormous, so revolting and so ruinous, what can the country expect that is good, peaceful or prosperous?

MASS MEETING AT BEAUFORT. The Conservatives of Carteret have appointed a Mass Meeting, to be held in the town of Beaufort, on Tuesday next, the 24th. inst. At the same time, candidates on the County ticket will be placed in nomination.—We are assured that our friends at Beaufort will make the amplest arrangements for an imposing demonstration, and we would urge it upon some of our prominent Conservative speakers to be in attendance. There are no truer Conservatives on earth than those of Carteret, and we hope that our friends from other quarters will be with them, on the occasion referred to, to strengthen and encourage them. Can we not send a delegation from Raleigh?

THE MONSTROUS CONSTITUTION.—As soon as we obtain a copy of this thing, we will make arrangements for its publication.—The so called Convention only ordered its publication in the two or three Radical papers in the State, so that nineteenths of the white men of the State will have to depend upon a gratuitous insertion in Conservative papers for a sight of it. But they shall see it,—the people in every nook and corner of the State shall see the monstrous thing.

THE RADICALS have been rejoicing over the defeat of the whites of Memphis, in the late municipal election. It is now charged that the result of the election was due to the importation of negroes from Arkansas and Mississippi, who were made to vote, while many of the white citizens of Memphis were kept from the polls by intimidation and the fear of exciting a riot.

HON. A. H. STEPHENS, of Georgia, is in Washington, spending a few days. His visit North was for the purpose of bringing out of the press his new book, "The War between the States." His health is said to be better than usual.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS.

The white men in Western North Carolina are arousing. A large mass meeting is to be held at Asheville, on Saturday, which will be addressed by a number of distinguished gentlemen.

Maj. Marcus Erwin, one of the Conservative Canvassers at large, has made appointments to address the people at various points in Henderson, Rutherford, Buncombe and McDowell.

We are highly gratified at this. Maj. Erwin has one of the most powerful minds in this State, and he is a popular and effective orator.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives of Buncombe was held at Asheville, on the 7th. Mont Patton, Esq., presided and Col. W. H. Moore was requested to act as Secretary. The meeting was addressed by Col. Stephen P. Lee, S. B. Gudger, Col. W. Pickens, R. M. Stokes, Dr. Candler, M. P. Pealed, J. H. Merrimon and Rev. Branch Merrimon. Appropriate resolutions were adopted and the finest spirit prevailed.

ACCEPTANCE OF GEN. S. F. PATTERSON.

The following admirable letter from Gen. S. F. Patterson, of Caldwell, accepting the nomination for Superintendent of Public Works, tendered him by the Conservative State Executive Committee, has the ring of the true metal. It is sufficient to say that it is just such a letter as might have been expected from its patriotic and excellent author,—than whom there is no purer citizen of North Carolina:

PALMYRA, CALDWELL COUNTY, }
March 13th, 1868. }

R. C. Badger, Secretary, &c.:

MY DEAR SIR:—Your favor of the 4 h. inst., informing me of my nomination by the State Conservative Executive Committee as a candidate for the position of Superintendent of Public Works of the State, and asking my acceptance of the same, has been duly received. Under ordinary circumstances, I should feel much disposed to decline the honor thus intended, but the extraordinary character of the times, and the recklessness of the political party now controlling the legislation of the country, together with their abandonment of many of our time-honored principles and usages, which hitherto brought prosperity and happiness to the people, it seems to me impose an obligation on every man, who has any regard for the perpetuity of our political institutions and the restoration of the Union on a constitutional basis, to do every thing in his power honorably and fairly to accomplish so desirable an object. I, therefore, accept the nomination tendered, and, if elected, will endeavor to discharge the duties of the position to the best of my ability.

Thanking you for the very flattering terms in which you were pleased to convey the notification,

I am, Very Respectfully,
And Truly Yours,
S. F. PATTERSON.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HILLSBORO, N. C., March 14, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—It gives me pleasure to inform you of another great outpouring of the true and patriotic Conservatives of Orange,—such an outpouring as it does one's soul good to witness. It reminded us of our manhood, that old Orange, the birth place of Mangum, Graham and others, is still true to her historic fame.

At twelve o'clock, the bell was rung, and, in a few minutes, our spacious Court House was filled, packed and crammed. Many of the fair sex graced the meeting with their presence, all deeply and seriously intent upon hearing what was to be said upon the great issue of the day.

The meeting was organized by appointing Jones Watson, Esq., Chairman, and Thos. M. Argo and C. E. Pollock as Secretaries.

The Hon. Josiah Turner, that bold and fearless spirit, that true and unflinching friend of constitutional liberty, in a few remarks explained the object of the meeting, and introduced the Hon. J. M. Leach, of Davidson, who, in a speech of more than an hour, entertained and delighted the audience in a happy and eloquent manner. His speech was well received and I trust was not without its proper effect.

The Hon. John Kerr, of Chatwell, was then called for, who, amid prolonged applause, addressed the people. It would be doing Mr. Kerr great injustice to attempt a description of his speech. It is enough to say that I think it was one among the most powerful efforts of that gifted and talented statesman's life. When he commenced speaking, one, or may be two of the hydra headed mongrel tribe of colaverd negroes in white livery might have been seen skulking in the rear, but as the muttering thunders of scorn and the lightning flashes of withering contempt fell fast and heavy upon them, they writhed under it and were glad to hide their dirty faces and skulk away in some hidden corner, where no decent white man could see them.

After a few [illegible] well directed remarks from the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, the meeting adjourned.

Let it be said, to the credit of old Orange, that there are but few of the hybrids in the county, and none at all at Hillsboro.

Before I conclude, I must tell you of the reception of the would-be Rev. J. A. McDonald. That distinguished individual made his personal appearance in town, on last Wednesday, and took lodgings—some say with his colored brethren, but be that as it may, we do not know and cannot say positively. But the next morning after his arrival, he enquired for the residence of Mr. P——, of our town. Thither he bent his course, and was met at the front door by Mrs. P., who was just in the act of inviting her distinguished visitor in the parlor, when he introduced himself to her as Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, informing her he was directed by Mr. T., of Pittsboro to call on Mr. P. and ask his assistance.

Mrs. P.—Do I understand you to say you are Mr. McD. of Chatham, a candidate for Congress?

Mac.—I am, madam.

Mrs. P.—Are you a Radical, and are you in favor of the political and civil equality of the races?

Mac.—I am no Radical. I am a Republican and am for the people.

Mrs. P.—Then, sir, if you are not a true Conservative, it is my duty to inform you that the sooner you have my door, the better it will be for you.

The distinguished gentleman, not at all displeased, asked if Mr. P. was in. Being told that he was not, he requested Mrs. P. to inform her husband that he wished to see him. "Where shall I tell my husband he can find you, if he should care to see you upon his return?" At this interrogatory, the distinguished gentleman ceased to be dumb founded, looked down and stammered out: "Well, down about the corner, or, may be, in the Court House." He then took his departure, to the manifest pleasure of Mrs. P.

Yours, &c.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THIS STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That Sections 1 and 2 of the ordinance of the Convention, adopted June 22nd, 1866, entitled "An Ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein," be and are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That Section 3 of the above entitled Ordinance be amended to read as follows: SEC. 3. That all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit, and account now pending in the Superior Courts, shall be continued to Spring Term 1869; and that the several Superior Courts at the Spring Term thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all such causes of action except where jurisdiction has been or shall be given to a Justice of the Peace by the Constitution or laws of North Carolina.—Should the defendant, at the Spring Term 1869, on writs which shall be returned to that Term or in any suit for the above causes of action then pending in the Superior Court, pay or confess judgment to the plaintiff for one-tenth of the debt and demand (principal and interest) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one fifth of the residue of the said debt or demand and cost, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one half of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, That the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Court shall order a jury at the same or some subsequent Term, to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon paying or confessing judgment for one fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury finds him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, That should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent instalment, then, and in that case, the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment, unless the defendant shall put in pleas, in which case the suit shall proceed according to the course of the Court in 1869: Provided further, That by consent of the plaintiff the defendant at any Term of the Court may confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That section 10 of the above recited act shall be amended to read as follows: SEC. 10. That executions on judgments in actions of debt, assumpsit, covenant or account, or decrees for money demands in Equity, which have been, or shall be, issued on judgments or decrees heretofore obtained, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale: Provided, such return shall not prejudice any lien the plaintiff may acquire or then have by virtue of said fi fa or conditional expenas. At Spring Term 1869, execution on all such judgments or decrees shall issue for only one tenth of the amount then due; at Spring Term 1870, for one fifth of the residue; at Spring Term 1871 for one-half of the residue; and at Spring Term 1872 for the balance of the debt; and no execution shall issue from the Fall Term on any such judgment or decree except by consent of the defendant. That no mortgagee or trustees shall expose to sale the property conveyed in such mortgage or trust deed, without the consent of the grantor, before first of March, 1869. Should the mortgagor or trustor at that time pay one-tenth of the debts mentioned, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1870; at that time should the mortgagor or trustor pay one-fifth of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1871; at that time should the trustor or mortgagor pay one-half of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to first of March, 1872; and at that time the trustee or mortgagee shall sell the property or so much of it as will realize the balance of the debts: Provided, however, That should the trustor or mortgagor fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalment, then, and in that case, the trustee or mortgagee shall sell at six months credit, so much of the property conveyed as will realize such instalment.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That section 11 of the above entitled act be amended to read as follows: That no warrants before Justices of the Peace shall issue or be returnable until January 1st, 1869. Should the defendant upon such return pay to the plaintiff, or to the collecting officer, for his use, or confess judgment before the magistrate, for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest) he shall be allowed twelve months to plead; at the expiration of that time, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-half of the residue of said debt or demand, he shall be allowed twelve months more to plead; at the expiration of that time the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, That the plaintiff, if required, shall file his claim in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which he shall particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Justice shall proceed to try the matters in dispute between the parties; and at the expiration of twelve months the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon payment of one-fifth of the amount admitted to be due, and whatever the Justice may have found him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, That should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent instalment, then, and in that case, the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment: Provided, further, That by consent of the plaintiff the defendant may, at any time, confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim. That all executions on judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, which have been, or shall be, issued on judgments heretofore obtained before any magistrate, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale; at the expiration of twelve months from such return execution on all such judgments shall issue for only one tenth of the amount then due; at the expiration of twelve months from that time for one fifth of the residue; at the expiration of twelve months more for one-half of the residue, and at the expiration of twelve months more for the balance of the debt.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That Section 17 of the above entitled ordinance be amended to read as follows: Sec. 17. That the provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted or penalties incurred since the first of May, A. D. 1865, or which may hereafter be contracted or incurred, except actions founded on any bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or any other instrument of writing, or parol promise, made since first May, 1865, in renewal of, or substitution for, a contract made prior to first of May, 1865, to the full amount of the principal and interest of a debt existing prior to said day, and without other consideration than such pre existent debt; and except, also, actions, suits, or process to revive, continue or enforce any judgment heretofore recovered upon any such bond, promissory note, bill of exchange or other instruments of writing or parol promise as is hereinbefore mentioned.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Passed March 14, 1868.

STIRRING SPEECH OF SENATOR DOOLITTLE.

HARTFORD, March 11.

Senator Doolittle addressed a vast assemblage here this evening for two hours. At the close he "arraigned and impeached Congress," as follows:

"In conclusion, fellow citizens, what the impeachment of President Johnson closes my mouth upon the subject of his impeachment, while delicacy and duty forbid me to speak upon that, my mouth is not closed, and no considerations of duty and delicacy will prevent me from speaking of another impeachment and before a tribunal more august than the Senate. In the name of Constitutional liberty, in the name of our great ancestors who laid the foundations of this Government to secure liberty for themselves and for us, in the name of all who love that liberty, who are ready to struggle, and, if need be, to die rather than allow it to be overthrown, in the name of the coming generations and of that race to which we belong and which has given to the world all its civilization, I do arraign and impeach the radical policy of the present Congress of high crimes and misdemeanor. At the bar of the American people, in the presence of high heaven and before the civilized world, I impeach it, first, as a crime against the laws of nature which God the Almighty has stamped upon the races of mankind, because it attempts to force a political, and social, and unnatural equality between the African and the Caucasian, between an alien, inferior, and exotic race from the tropics, with the highest type of the human race in the home of the latter in the temperate zone.—Second, I impeach it as a crime against civilization, because it would by force wrench the government out of the hands of the civilized white race in ten States of the Union to place it in the hands of the half civilized African. Third, I impeach it as a crime against the Constitution, because it tramples down the right of the States to fix for themselves the qualification of their own voters, a right without which a State ceases to be republican at all. Fourth, I impeach it as a crime against the Constitution and against national faith, because it annuls the pardons constitutionally granted to hundreds of thousands of the most intelligent white men of the South, and is open, palpable violation of the Constitution distranchises them. Fifth, I impeach it as a crime against the existence of ten States of the Union and the liberties of eight millions of people, because in express terms it annuls all civil government by which alone those liberties may be secured, and places them under an absolute military despotism. Sixth, I impeach it as a crime against humanity, tending to produce a war of races, to the utter destruction of one or both, a result which cannot be prevented without a large standing army which neither our resources will bear, or our liberties long survive. Seventh, I impeach it as an utter abandonment of the purpose for which the war was prosecuted, of the idea upon which we fought and mastered rebellion. It tends to make false all the promises and pledges made by the friends of the government in its fearful struggle to put down the rebellion and it tends to make true all the prophesies and heart-sickenings of its enemies.

The great struggle in New Hampshire has been upon the advanced lines. The friends of the Constitution and of that liberty it was designed to secure, while they bravely held their own and made large gains, have won a complete victory. Perhaps a complete triumph in New Hampshire now would have allowed the people of other States to imagine the great victory already won, so be less wise and less prudent, and to underrate the tremendous struggle necessary to meet and overcome the Radicalism which, in the name of a great and successful General, now threatens to destroy the Constitution, the most sacred rights of the States under it, and the liberties of the people, by a revolution in favor of centralization and imperialism more insidious but not less dangerous than secession itself.—Yesterday, although they were centered upon the friends of constitutional liberty in New Hampshire, they stood nobly; when blows fell fast and thickest, they advanced, they gained, but not all that was hoped. To-day, all eyes are turned upon Connecticut with equal exertion your majority of last year will be more than treble, and then if our Convention in New York on the 4th of July next will select our standard bearers, and placing them upon the issues of the present and not of the past, and whoever they be, civilians or military men, statesmen or Generals, from the East or from the West, if they do not place us upon the defensive, but give the word to advance upon the whole lines from Maine to California, we must be victorious in the great struggle in November, unless truth and justice and the love of true liberty have ceased to rule the hearts and consciences of the American people.

JUDICIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The undersigned Committee, to provide for holding a Convention of the counties of the proposed First Judicial District, to wit: Bertie, Hertford, Gates, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, and Currituck, to nominate a Conservative candidate for the office of Solicitor, appoint Tuesday, the 6th day of April next, as the time, and Edenton as the place, for holding the same, and do earnestly recommend action in the several counties in order to their being represented therein.

RUFUS K. FERRELL,
March 17th, 1868. Sheriff.

CANVASSERS' NOTICE.—The Canvassers of the White Men's Party will certainly be present, to address the people, at Holly Springs, on Wednesday, the 18th, and at Franklin's, on Saturday, the 21st.

The Canvassers from Raleigh were prevented from being present at Banks', last Saturday, on account of their inability to procure any means of conveyance. This will be obviated in the future.

CANVASSERS.—The following additional Canvassers are hereby announced, viz:

Watauga.—W F Shull, Esq, Rev D C Harman, Col Jonathan Heaton, Col William Horton, Maj H Bingham, Dudley Farthing, Esq, Rev A C Farthing, Rev S Martin and Rev C Moretz.

LO! THE POOR NEGRO.—We learn that, at a late meeting of the "League," in Fayetteville, two negroes,—Jno. Leary and Isham Swett,—were nominated for the House of Commons from Cumberland. We are further reliably informed that orders have been issued from the "Head Centre," in this city, to the subordinate League in Fayetteville, that this thing must be undone,—that the negroes are good enough to vote, but that they are not expected to have the offices.

BLACK MAIL.—We hear it rumored, that the Wall Street New York Brokers have presented a number of the Radicals of the Convention with a new hat and pair of gloves, with other substantial fixins, in consideration of passing the new financial project endorsing the N. C. bonds, (many of which are held by the New York Brokers,) and directing the next Legislature to make provision, by taxation, for the payment of the interest on said bonds, commencing January 1st, 1869. People of North Carolina! Are you ready to be thus bought and sold by New York Brokers? No, never! Rise in your might and defeat the Constitution, by a strong vote.

PICTERS.—From a stray note, which was picked up, we learn that the members of the so-called have had their "picters" taken, especially those who are on the Holden Radical State ticket. It is a good idea.—We want the people to see their "picters." That will be enough to scare every honest white man from the ticket.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Dancing School: Miss Rosa Carncross, at Tucker Hall,—to commence on Friday, 20th. inst.

Sorrel Filly Stolen: W. P. Carlton, Wake county.

Ox Strayed or Stolen: Kimbro Jones, near Raleigh.

Another lot of good things at Tonnoffski's: Read his ads.

Varieties: Geo. T. & W. C. Stronach.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Joseph W. Holden, charged with making an assault upon H. H. Helper, at the Yarborough House, in this city, was returned to the Superior Court.

Tom Mac, negro, charged with making an assault upon John Daves, negro, at the Livery Stable of T. B. Bridgers & Co., in this city, was fined $5.

"THE MORNING STAR."—We take pleasure in giving, in another column, the prospectus of this sprightly and able Conservative Daily, published in Wilmington, by W. H. Barnard, Esq. It is one of the rarest and most readable of our exchanges.

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION.—That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION! That is the slogan.

SHAH MARRIAGE BETWEEN NEGROES and WHITES—amalgamation,—be allowed! That is one of the issues.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, Mar. 16, P. M.

Convention called to order at the usual hour.

Jones, of Washington, called up the ordinance, providing for a Commission, consisting of Mosely, C. C. Pool and G. Cherry, (negro,) to enquire into the affairs of the Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal Company,—the said Commission to be paid $6 per day, while engaged in the work, and to have their traveling and incidental expenses paid.

On motion, the rules were suspended and the ordinance was adopted.

Mr. Sweet offered an ordinance, repealing Section 2 of an ordinance, "entitled "an ordinance to change the manner of paying the subscription to the capital stock of the Western North Carolina R. R. Co."

Mr. Sweet moved to suspend the rules and put the ordinance upon its passage.

The yeas and nays being called upon its passage, resulted in its adoption by a vote of yeas 66, nays 9.

Mr. Heaton, from the Committee on Revision, reported that the said Committee had completed its work and now presented the Constitution as a whole.

Mr. H. moved that as Mr. Nicholson was familiar with the instrument, he should proceed to the Secretary's desk and read it.

Mr. Nicholson came to the stand and proceeded to read the entire Constitution, when Mr. Heaton offered a resolution that the same be adopted.

On the passage of the resolution, Mr. Heaton called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Durham said the Conservatives did not look upon this as a Constitution framed by the free people of North Carolina, but one forced upon them at the point of the bayonet. He, in the name of the Conservatives on this floor, asked that the capitol bell be tolled, while the vote on this resolution is being taken, as the death knell of the Constitutional liberties of the free citizens of North Carolina.

Mr. Rodman made a speech, lauding the Constitution and deprecating Mr. Durham's remarks.

Tourgee, also, had his say.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said:

"I rise to state that I have never performed an act more cheerfully in my life, than the one which I shall perform in voting against this Constitution. North Carolina is the only Southern State in which a large number of the most intelligent and enlightened citizens are not placed in a lower position than those assigned to the lately emancipated slave. While I give credit to some gentlemen on this floor for magnanimity in this matter, I do attribute your lenient course in this State to the large white registered majority. The spirit of your party is proscriptive, and it is for the prudential reason I have mentioned, that your usual policy is not pursued here. I vote for the Constitution of our fathers, framed by independent freemen, and not for one dictated to us by Congress. I redeem the pledge given to my constituents and approved by them, when they voted against holding this Convention."

The question recurred upon the resolution. The roll was called, resulting in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Mr. President, Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Aydlett, Benbow, Blume, Bryan, Carey, (negro) Carter, Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Chilton, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, (negro,) Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) George, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of North Hampton, Gully, Gunter, Hall, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro) Heaton, Highsmith, (negro,) Hobbs, Hoffler, Holdwell, Hood, (negro,) Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, (negro,) Legg, Logan, Marshall, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Mulbean, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Parks, Petree, Pierson, (negro,) Ray, Read, Renfrow, Rhodes, Rich, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilly, Stilwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker.—86.

NAYS.—Messrs. Baker, Bradley, Durham, Etheridge, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Holt, McCubbins, Merritt, Sandglin.—10.

Mr. Abbott offered a resolution that the President, Secretary and members shall sign the Constitution to night, and members absent shall have the opportunity to sign between this and the 1st. day of July next. Carried.

Mr. Sweet offered a resolution, informing Gen. Canby of the different offices created by this Convention, &c. Carried.

Mr. Nicholson read a power of Attorney from certain parties, authorizing the Secretary to sign the Constitution for them.

After a great deal of wrangling, as to the manner of signing the immortal instrument, it was determined to call by counties. All signed, save Messrs. Durham, of Cleaveland, Sanderlin, of Currituck, Lennon, of Columbus, (absent,) Ellis, of Catawba, (absent,) Rodnett, of Caswell, (absent,) Baker, of Edgecombe, Dowd, (absent,) Hare, of Hertford, Etheridge, of Onslow, Holt and Graham, of Orange, Merritt, of Person, McCubbins, of Rowan, and Bradley, of Watauga.

On motion of Mr. Tourgee, the House took a recess for 15 minutes.

[Here a most disgraceful scene ensued.—Various Radicals sung ridiculous and absurd songs, and bedlam doings were generally enacted.]

At the expiration of the recess, Mr. Cowles resumed the Chair.

Mr. Rich offered a resolution of thanks to the President, C. J. Cowles, for the very able and efficient manner in which he has presided over this Convention (!!!)

Carried, and Cowles took the floor to give his thanks! He was overwhelmed—his buzzum was a-swelling to the busting pint. His tongue was a cleaving to his mouth,—and so on and so on to the end of the chapter.

The Convention then adjourned to meet at ½ past 7 o'clock, to-morrow morning.

MORNING SESSION.

TUESDAY, March 17, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 7½ o'clock, A. M.

In the absence of the Chairman, Mr. Abbott was, on motion of Mr. Heaton, called to the Chair.

Prayer by Cape Cod Ashley, of the Convention.

Mr. Congleton offered a resolution, that it is the sense of this Convention, that the next Legislature shall take into consideration the condition of the landless population (negroes) of the State, and, if practicable, provide small freeholds for them, so that they may become identified with the interests of the State.

Adopted.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 9 o'clock.

NINE O'CLOCK.

House re-assembled—President Cowles in the Chair.

Mr. Heaton presented the following ordinance:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained, That C. J. Cowles shall receive a compensation of six dollars per day, while actually engaged in the performance of the duties imposed on him by the several ordinances of this Convention, and that the same be paid by the Treasurer of the State, on the warrant of said Cowles.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

The ordinance was put to a vote and adopted.

In accordance with the resolution passed some time ago, an address, explanatory of the provisions of the Constitution, to be appended to the Constitution, drawn up by Mr. Rodman, was read by him and adopted.

Andrews offered an ordinance, amending the charter of the city of Raleigh, making every qualified voter eligible to the office of Mayor and other city officers; which was adopted.

[Here some difficulty arose about the enrolling business, and the Sergeant at arms was sent in search of the Engrossing Clerk.]

On motion of Mr. Tourgee, a recess was taken until 11½ o'clock.

Gen. Mjl. was called on to speak, but declined in a few remarks. Gen. Littlefield was next called on and spoke for some time and then sung a song.

Dickey, of Cherokee, also sung a song, and Byrnes, the Secretary, sung a song, and several other musical mongrels sung songs

ELEVEN AND A HALF O'CLOCK.

The President resumed the Chair.

Mr. Rich offered a resolution, that the Secretary be authorized to employ an assistant clerk. Adopted.

Mr. Abbott moved to adjourn.

The President said that, last night, he had committed a great mistake in vacating the chair to respond to the resolution of thanks. He said he should have responded from the chair. He hoped that the Convention would excuse him, as he was jubilant: he was not aware of his breach of decorum!

Mr. Abbott withdrew his motion to adjourn, in order to allow the Committee on enrolment to report the final and proper engrossment of the ordinance providing for elections.

Mr. Heaton said, as he had ascertained the non-engrossment of several important ordinances, he, therefore, moved that the resolution adjourning at 12 o'clock be rescinded, and that the hour of one be substituted instead thereof. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Somebody, the House took another recess for fifteen minutes.

At the expiration of the time, business was again resumed, when the Committee on Enrolment reported back several ordinances, which the Chair proceeded to sign, in the presence of the Convention.

The President then declared the Convention adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

LAUS DEO—saith the Reporter.

For the Sentinel.

HENDERSON ADAMS, ESQ., THE CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC AUDITOR.

Messrs. Pell and Gales:—Will you allow me to make a suggestion, or two, to my friend, whose name heads this letter, through your paper? The article from "Traveller," published in your daily, last week, was terrible—it was a devilish hard thing, and I, for one, would like to know if the statements there made are true. I certainly will not vote for any one, Radical or Conservative, for any office, who stands convicted before the public of such charges as are made by "Traveller." Now, Mr. Adams, you gave us to understand in our meeting, in Lexington, last Saturday, that the statements here referred to were all false.—If they are untrue, it is the easiest matter in the world to prove it, and convict Pell and Gales of inserting a tissue of falsehoods in the Sentinel against an innocent man. Go to the Magistrate, before whom you are said to have made the oaths, between which there is such a discrepancy, and get his certificate, stating that it is all untrue. Then get one from C. F. Lowe, Esq., stating that he has never had a subscription list of the kind, spoken of by "Traveller," with your name on it. Thus, if you are clear, you can get papers to show it from men whose word none will dispute. Send them to Pell and Gales and they will set you all right. I know they will. For they cleared me of stealing Darr's mule right along, especially when I got the assistance of Sheriff David Loftin.

If you do not do something of this kind, I will swear that it will use you up in this country on the day of the election. Many of the negroes say they will not vote for a man who has made the oaths you are said to have made.

WINDY BILLY.

Washington Correspondence of New York Herald of 12th.

STANTON AFRAID OF MOSBY.

A more absurd story never emanated from the intelligent contraband of the rebellion than the report which caused such consternation in the War Department on Friday last.

This it was:—A detective employed by Mr. Stanton to bring him early intelligence of any danger that might threaten the safety of his official sanctuary, appeared before him on that day and imparted the startling intelligence that Mosby had organized a force in the country adjacent to the Potomac river and was prepared to enter Washington, surround the War Department and seize the refractory Secretary of War, so-called. What disposition was then to have been made of the illustrious prisoner was not clearly known, but uncomfortable visions of a midnight ride on a Virginia fence rail, exposed to the biting blasts of wintry air, with no other covering than a liberal coat of tar and feathers, or, perhaps, a sudden dissolution of all that is mortal of the great War Secretary and his remains thrust into some one of the half filled holes that cover the Bull Run battle field, filled the mind of the nervous Stanton and he at once ordered out a force of seventy-five men.—This force was held under marching orders to move to the scene of action at a moment's notice. At night, while the weather was quite cold, a strong guard was sent to the Long Bridge across the Potomac to look out for the approach of the enemy and contest the passage of the river. The guard, much to their disgust, bivouacked in the cold night air on the Long Bridge for two nights, but were doomed to disappointment, for no Mosby made his appearance.

A VILLAINOUS DOCUMENT!—We have been informed by a gentleman who saw it, that a most incendiary and inflammatory document is being circulated among the negroes, to excite their hate of their late masters and the white race of the South. Such meanness can only come from a Radical source, and such villains deserve hanging without Judge or jury. No honest man ought to co-operate with a party, that resorts to such villainy to obtain office.—Certainly, no man born in the South, with a white skin, should lend himself to their use.—Statesville American.

Fred. Douglas had a warm reception at Shelbyville, Ill., on Monday night, his lecture being received with lively hoots and jeers.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 17, P. M.

Alexander H. Stephens departed for Crawfordville, Georgia, to-day.

Gene al Hancock's approaching visit has no general political significance.

Commander Dahlgren's estate valued at $10,000, has been stolen from the Patent office.

Revenue to-day $262,000.

It has transpired that Thad. Stevens, all along, has opposed Alabama's admission under the recent election and that he is struggling for suffrage, only restricted by the conviction of crime.

The Supreme Court has granted leave to file the new Georgia bill, notwithstanding Carpenter's objection, that Jenkins was not Governor.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 17, P. M.

HOUSE.—Jenckes, chairman of the Retrenchment Committee, denounces Van Wyck's recent whiskey fraud report, as the unauthorized work of an individual member of the Committee, made without the consent, knowledge or approval of the other members of the Committee.

Mr. Wilson desired to make an explanation, regarding the clandestine Judiciary Amendment.

Wood objected, unless the Democrats were allowed to reply.

The Bill removing political disabilities was resumed.

Bingham amended so as to relieve from disabilities imposed by both Constitution and laws.

The amendment, omitting Gilmer's name, was adopted.

Amendments, adding other names to the original list, were rejected.

Bingham dragged them out to load the Bill.—Holden would be the next Governor of North Carolina, and could not act, unless the Bill passed. (Bingham is a thousand miles out of the way.)

Logan questioned the orthodox of Gov. Orr's loyalty.

Bingham and Orr had made encouraging speeches to the South Carolina Convention.

Logan wanted to know about Orr's Philadelphia speech.

Bingham declined going into particulars, but thought a man, who had influence enough to beat Wade Hampton, ought to be encouraged to use that influence in favor of the Reconstruction laws.

Schenck proposed a month's postponement to obtain facts.

Boutwell favored taking the responsibility.

Logan wanted fruits meet for repentance.

Logan denounced Governor Brown of Georgia as a mere politician.

Kelly said Governor Brown worked zealously and ought to be forgiven.

Mullin wanted to know how long Adam had to lie out, before God gave him a stance, by the birth of a Saviour, to repent? (Laughter.)

Farnsworth intimated that some plan must be devised to relieve white men, otherwise there would be two parties South, based on color, when the blackman's party would go to dust.

Alabama's admission was resumed.

Stevens said: "I am satisfied that to force a vote, on this bill, and admit the State against our own law, while there is a difference of twenty odd thousand against it, would not be doing such justice in legislation, as could be expected by the people. That being the case, I move that the bill be recommitted." Carried.

SENATE.—Nothing of importance.

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for years and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and stake our REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.
Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending calamity.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

Canvassers for the State at Large.

The following gentlemen have been appointed, by the State Conservative Executive Committee, Canvassers for the State at large. NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

W. E. PELL,
